II. Interpretation

- A. Describe the commitment of your church to Evana Confession of faith. How does this contribute to strengthening your ability to join God's mission in the world? North Clinton is strongly rooted in Anabaptist beliefs and holds to and teaches all the Articles of the Mennonite Confession of Faith as adopted in 1995, also adopted by Evana in 2016. Article 10 addresses the mission of the church: "Go ye therefore and make disciples of all men." North Clinton is currently supporting three long-term missionaries and one mission organization. At a local level, we encourage making disciples by interacting with the community through avenues such as the Grandstand Diner, local service opportunities, prayer walks. Our strong Anabaptist beliefs give us a firm foundation to reach out to a hurting world.
- B. What is the vision for your church? What are your priorities that shape the church's ministry? The vision of North Clinton is wrapped up in our mission statement based on Ephesians 4:13: "That all may come to know and experience the fullness of Christ." In order to work towards that vision, we believe that we must constantly work to love God and love each other that he would be made known among us.
- C. What is your view of the associate pastor's role in the church? Are there special gifts in ministry which you hope will be fulfilled? How do you expect the pastor to be a representative of the congregation beyond the congregation? The associate pastor would be someone who connects well with the youth of our congregation as well as the youth of our community. We expect this individual to be passionate about their faith and others that they lead. The most important aspect of this role is the relationships built. This individual not only will work with young folks but will lead other adults and raise up leaders in our congregation and community.
- D. Recognizing our differing theological orientations as persons and as congregations, make a brief statement about your congregation and the overarching theological commitments important to you.
As a congregation, we hold to the Mennonite Confession of Faith as adopted in 1995 also adopted by Evana in 2016. Our members are also invited to sign the North Clinton Covenant of Faith. We believe in the authority of scripture, understanding that "all scripture is God-breathed and useful for teaching, correcting, rebuking, and training in righteousness so that the servant of God may be equipped for every good work." 2 Timothy 3:16. We desire to follow the example of Jesus Christ by showing unconditional love for people, recognizing that does not mean unconditional approval of sinful behavior. Relying on the Holy Spirit, we desire to be a body of believers committed to ongoing discipleship, walking a journey of daily submission that imitates the life of Christ. As we strive for holiness through the transformational power of Christ, we walk together and value the accountability among the body of believers.
- E. Church morale: Assess the spiritual and emotional health of the congregation. Are relationships among members wholesome and harmonious? Is there openness to new ideas and ways of doing things? Would everyone agree with your answers? The overall spiritual and emotional health of our congregation is growing. Pastors, staff, and leadership are supportive of one another and all genuinely want what is best for each other. Many in the congregation tend to hold a black and white view of all things and have little acknowledgement for the gray areas of faith. Overall, the congregation supports and affirms the pastors who stand firmly on the Word of God. There is energy toward our future and what is to come. Our congregation is generally open to new ideas if they can see and understand what direction we are moving and why. Many in our congregation take on the role of the Berean and check all things with scripture before moving forward.

- F. What changes or trends do you envision for the congregation over the next five years? Do you have any other comments significant in the process for looking for new pastoral leadership? We are excited about the future of the congregation. We believe that the current vision and direction of North Clinton is in line with God's will, but we seek an associate pastor to bring fresh ideas and gifts to help shape and focus that direction. We envision North Clinton's continued growth as we reach and meet the needs of the community. There is great need for meeting people in their place of need and walking with them toward the cross of Christ continually. We would love to seek opportunities for families to participate in short term mission trips, church-wide spiritual retreat, and the development of an internship program to produce church leaders in our church, community, and church network.
